

Kyung Hee Kim

From: NAGC@cmcg.com
Sent: Friday, March 19, 2010 4:37 PM
To: kkim@wm.edu
Subject: NAGC 57th Annual Convention

Congratulations! NAGC is pleased to inform you that your proposal has been selected for presentation at the 57th Annual Convention of the National Association for Gifted Children Atlanta, GA, November 11-14, 2010. Your accomplishment is significant. There were over 1100 proposals submitted for approximately 300 program slots. Below are the presentation details:

Title: Motivation Factors and College Choice among Gifted Students: Findings from Education Longitudinal Study of 2002
Proposal Number:
Strand Selection: Research and Evaluation
Type of Session: Accepted Individual Session
Date: Friday, November 12, 2010
Time: 4:30 p.m. - 5:30 p.m.
Room: C106

PLEASE NOTE:

Your assigned convention strand may be different from the strand to which you submitted your proposal because proposal reviewers felt that your proposal was better suited to another strand. Any secondary presenters listed in your proposal have also been notified of this acceptance; however, please confirm that they have received this notification, and verify their availability to present.

If your session was accepted as:

- * an Individual session presentation you, along with any secondary presenters, will have the entire one-hour timeslot for your presentation.
- * a Combined session presentation you, along with any secondary presenters, will share the one-hour timeslot with another presentation. You will be connected with the other presenter(s) to plan accordingly.
- * a Poster session presentation you, along with any secondary presenters, will share your information in a gallery format with several similar topics offered simultaneously, where the audience moves from presentation to presentation. You will be notified of the day, time and location at a later date.
- * a Putting It Into Practice session presentation, you, along with any secondary presenters, will have a 45-minute timeslot for your presentation due to its special scheduling within the lunch time block. A Putting it Into Practice session is designed to provide practical resources and hands on experiences for conferees.

Speaker Management Center

It is important that you access this page to confirm all personal details, access important dates, verify session information is correct, view registration/housing information, to ACCEPT or REJECT the offer to do the presentation above (in the format listed above), and much more

<http://www.softconference.com/Subs/NAGC/301111/main.asp>

Your log in details are:

Email - kkim@wm.edu

Password - 9801108

You must ACCEPT or REJECT the offer by April 30, 2010 in order to present at the 2010 NAGC Convention in Atlanta, November 11 – 14, 2010

You will receive additional emails in the future weeks with important presentation information.

- Presenters must register for the Convention in order to conduct your session and have your name appear in the convention program. The deadline for presenters to register is September 15, 2010. More convention information, including housing, is available at www.nagc.org.
- Presenters are responsible for securing and paying for their own travel, lodging, and meals.

Having been selected from over 1100 submissions, your presentation will make an important contribution to the quality of the convention and the information provided for the participants. We will request an electronic copy of your handouts for use with our online Live Learning Center. If you wish to display or sell materials, you may do so only by renting space in the Exhibit Hall. More information on this can be found in the Speaker Management Center.

If you have any questions about the information presented here, please contact Derrick Johnson (202) 621-5764 or the national office at 202-785-4268. You can also e-mail your questions to djohnson@nagc.org. We hope that you will be able to join us in Atlanta!

Kyung Hee Kim

From: NAGC@cmcg.com
Sent: Friday, March 19, 2010 4:37 PM
To: kkim@wm.edu
Subject: NAGC 57th Annual Convention

Congratulations! NAGC is pleased to inform you that your proposal has been selected for presentation at the 57th Annual Convention of the National Association for Gifted Children Atlanta, GA, November 11-14, 2010. Your accomplishment is significant. There were over 1100 proposals submitted for approximately 300 program slots. Below are the presentation details:

Title: Motivation Factors and College Choice among Gifted Students: Findings from Education Longitudinal Study of 2002
Proposal Number:
Strand Selection: Research and Evaluation
Type of Session: Accepted Individual Session
Date: Friday, November 12, 2010
Time: 4:30 p.m. - 5:30 p.m.
Room: C106

PLEASE NOTE:

Your assigned convention strand may be different from the strand to which you submitted your proposal because proposal reviewers felt that your proposal was better suited to another strand. Any secondary presenters listed in your proposal have also been notified of this acceptance; however, please confirm that they have received this notification, and verify their availability to present.

If your session was accepted as:

- * an Individual session presentation you, along with any secondary presenters, will have the entire one-hour timeslot for your presentation.
- * a Combined session presentation you, along with any secondary presenters, will share the one-hour timeslot with another presentation. You will be connected with the other presenter(s) to plan accordingly.
- * a Poster session presentation you, along with any secondary presenters, will share your information in a gallery format with several similar topics offered simultaneously, where the audience moves from presentation to presentation. You will be notified of the day, time and location at a later date.
- * a Putting It Into Practice session presentation, you, along with any secondary presenters, will have a 45-minute timeslot for your presentation due to its special scheduling within the lunch time block. A Putting it Into Practice session is designed to provide practical resources and hands on experiences for conferees.

Speaker Management Center

It is important that you access this page to confirm all personal details, access important dates, verify session information is correct, view registration/housing information, to ACCEPT or REJECT the offer to do the presentation above (in the format listed above), and much more

<http://www.softconference.com/Subs/NAGC/301111/main.asp>

Your log in details are:

Email - kkim@wm.edu

Password - 9801108

You must ACCEPT or REJECT the offer by April 30, 2010 in order to present at the 2010 NAGC Convention in Atlanta, November 11 – 14, 2010

You will receive additional emails in the future weeks with important presentation information.

- Presenters must register for the Convention in order to conduct your session and have your name appear in the convention program. The deadline for presenters to register is September 15, 2010. More convention information, including housing, is available at www.nagc.org.
- Presenters are responsible for securing and paying for their own travel, lodging, and meals.

Having been selected from over 1100 submissions, your presentation will make an important contribution to the quality of the convention and the information provided for the participants. We will request an electronic copy of your handouts for use with our online Live Learning Center. If you wish to display or sell materials, you may do so only by renting space in the Exhibit Hall. More information on this can be found in the Speaker Management Center.

If you have any questions about the information presented here, please contact Derrick Johnson (202) 621-5764 or the national office at 202-785-4268. You can also e-mail your questions to djohnson@nagc.org. We hope that you will be able to join us in Atlanta!

Kyung Hee Kim

From: NAGC@cmcg.com
Sent: Friday, March 19, 2010 4:37 PM
To: kkim@wm.edu
Subject: NAGC 57th Annual Convention

Congratulations! NAGC is pleased to inform you that your proposal has been selected for presentation at the 57th Annual Convention of the National Association for Gifted Children Atlanta, GA, November 11-14, 2010. Your accomplishment is significant. There were over 1100 proposals submitted for approximately 300 program slots. Below are the presentation details:

Title: Project Clarion: Assessing Science Reasoning and Conceptual Understanding in the Primary Grades Using Performance Measures
Proposal Number:
Strand Selection: Research and Evaluation
Type of Session: Accepted Individual Session
Date: Friday, November 12, 2010
Time: 10:30 a.m. - 11:30 a.m.
Room: C303

PLEASE NOTE:

Your assigned convention strand may be different from the strand to which you submitted your proposal because proposal reviewers felt that your proposal was better suited to another strand. Any secondary presenters listed in your proposal have also been notified of this acceptance; however, please confirm that they have received this notification, and verify their availability to present.

If your session was accepted as:

- * an Individual session presentation you, along with any secondary presenters, will have the entire one-hour timeslot for your presentation.
- * a Combined session presentation you, along with any secondary presenters, will share the one-hour timeslot with another presentation. You will be connected with the other presenter(s) to plan accordingly.
- * a Poster session presentation you, along with any secondary presenters, will share your information in a gallery format with several similar topics offered simultaneously, where the audience moves from presentation to presentation. You will be notified of the day, time and location at a later date.
- * a Putting It Into Practice session presentation, you, along with any secondary presenters, will have a 45-minute timeslot for your presentation due to its special scheduling within the lunch time block. A Putting it Into Practice session is designed to provide practical resources and hands on experiences for conferees.

Speaker Management Center

It is important that you access this page to confirm all personal details, access important dates, verify session information is correct, view registration/housing information, to ACCEPT or REJECT the offer to do the presentation above (in the format listed above), and much more

<http://www.softconference.com/Subs/NAGC/301111/main.asp>

Your log in details are:

Email - kkim@wm.edu

Password - 9801108

You must ACCEPT or REJECT the offer by April 30, 2010 in order to present at the 2010 NAGC Convention in Atlanta, November 11 – 14, 2010

You will receive additional emails in the future weeks with important presentation information.

- Presenters must register for the Convention in order to conduct your session and have your name appear in the convention program. The deadline for presenters to register is September 15, 2010. More convention information, including housing, is available at www.nagc.org.
- Presenters are responsible for securing and paying for their own travel, lodging, and meals.

Having been selected from over 1100 submissions, your presentation will make an important contribution to the quality of the convention and the information provided for the participants. We will request an electronic copy of your handouts for use with our online Live Learning Center. If you wish to display or sell materials, you may do so only by renting space in the Exhibit Hall. More information on this can be found in the Speaker Management Center.

If you have any questions about the information presented here, please contact Derrick Johnson (202) 621-5764 or the national office at 202-785-4268. You can also e-mail your questions to djohnson@nagc.org. We hope that you will be able to join us in Atlanta!

Kyung Hee Kim

From: NAGC@cmcg.com
Sent: Tuesday, March 23, 2010 12:18 PM
To: kkim@wm.edu
Subject: NAGC 57th Annual Convention

Congratulations! NAGC is pleased to inform you that your proposal has been selected for presentation at the 57th Annual Convention of the National Association for Gifted Children Atlanta, GA, November 11-14, 2010. Your accomplishment is significant. There were over 1100 proposals submitted for approximately 300 program slots. Below are the presentation details:

Title: Does immersing diverse culture benefit to be creative? : How and Why?
Proposal Number:
Track Name: Global Awareness
Session Type: Accepted Poster Session

PLEASE NOTE:

Your assigned convention strand may be different from the strand to which you submitted your proposal because proposal reviewers felt that your proposal was better suited to another strand. Any secondary presenters listed in your proposal have also been notified of this acceptance; however, please confirm that they have received this notification, and verify their availability to present.

If your session was accepted as:

- * an Individual session presentation you, along with any secondary presenters, will have the entire one-hour timeslot for your presentation.
- * a Combined session presentation you, along with any secondary presenters, will share the one-hour timeslot with another presentation. You will be connected with the other presenter(s) to plan accordingly.
- * a Poster session presentation you, along with any secondary presenters, will share your information in a gallery format with several similar topics offered simultaneously, where the audience moves from presentation to presentation. You will be notified of the day, time and location at a later date.
- * a Putting It Into Practice session presentation, you, along with any secondary presenters, will have a 45-minute timeslot for your presentation due to its special scheduling within the lunch time block. A Putting it Into Practice session is designed to provide practical resources and hands on experiences for conferees.

Speaker Management Center

It is important that you access this page to confirm all personal details, access important dates, verify session information is correct, view registration/housing information, to ACCEPT or REJECT the offer to do the presentation above (in the format listed above), and much more <http://www.softconference.com/Subs/NAGC/301111/main.asp>

Your log in details are:

Login: kkim@wm.edu

Password: 9801108

You must ACCEPT or REJECT the offer by April 30, 2010 in order to present at the 2010 NAGC Convention in Atlanta, November 11 – 14, 2010

You will receive additional emails in the future weeks with important presentation information.

- Presenters must register for the Convention in order to conduct your session and have your name appear in the convention program. The deadline for presenters to register is September 15, 2010. More convention information, including housing, is available at www.nagc.org.
- Presenters are responsible for securing and paying for their own travel, lodging, and meals.

Having been selected from over 1100 submissions, your presentation will make an important contribution to the quality of the convention and the information provided for the participants. We will request an electronic copy of your handouts for use with our online Live Learning Center. If you wish to display or sell materials, you may do so only by renting space in the Exhibit Hall. More information on this can be found in the Speaker Management Center.

If you have any questions about the information presented here, please contact Derrick Johnson (202) 621-5764 or the national office at 202-785-4268. You can also e-mail your questions to djohnson@nagc.org. We hope that you will be able to join us in Atlanta!

Kyung Hee Kim

From: NAGC@cmcg.com
Sent: Friday, March 19, 2010 4:36 PM
To: kkim@wm.edu
Subject: NAGC 57th Annual Convention

Congratulations! NAGC is pleased to inform you that your proposal has been selected for presentation at the 57th Annual Convention of the National Association for Gifted Children Atlanta, GA, November 11-14, 2010. Your accomplishment is significant. There were over 1100 proposals submitted for approximately 300 program slots. Below are the presentation details:

Title: Direct and Indirect Effects of Creativity and Personality on Suicidal Ideation among Honors College Students
Proposal Number:
Strand Selection: Research and Evaluation
Type of Session: Accepted Individual Session
Date: Friday, November 12, 2010
Time: 10:30 a.m. - 11:30 a.m.
Room: C108

PLEASE NOTE:

Your assigned convention strand may be different from the strand to which you submitted your proposal because proposal reviewers felt that your proposal was better suited to another strand. Any secondary presenters listed in your proposal have also been notified of this acceptance; however, please confirm that they have received this notification, and verify their availability to present.

If your session was accepted as:

- * an Individual session presentation you, along with any secondary presenters, will have the entire one-hour timeslot for your presentation.
- * a Combined session presentation you, along with any secondary presenters, will share the one-hour timeslot with another presentation. You will be connected with the other presenter(s) to plan accordingly.
- * a Poster session presentation you, along with any secondary presenters, will share your information in a gallery format with several similar topics offered simultaneously, where the audience moves from presentation to presentation. You will be notified of the day, time and location at a later date.
- * a Putting It Into Practice session presentation, you, along with any secondary presenters, will have a 45-minute timeslot for your presentation due to its special scheduling within the lunch time block. A Putting it Into Practice session is designed to provide practical resources and hands on experiences for conferees.

Speaker Management Center

It is important that you access this page to confirm all personal details, access important dates, verify session information is correct, view registration/housing information, to ACCEPT or REJECT the offer to do the presentation above (in the format listed above), and much more

<http://www.softconference.com/Subs/NAGC/301111/main.asp>

Your log in details are:

Email - kkim@wm.edu

Password - 9801108

You must ACCEPT or REJECT the offer by April 30, 2010 in order to present at the 2010 NAGC Convention in Atlanta, November 11 – 14, 2010

You will receive additional emails in the future weeks with important presentation information.

- Presenters must register for the Convention in order to conduct your session and have your name appear in the convention program. The deadline for presenters to register is September 15, 2010. More convention information, including housing, is available at www.nagc.org.
- Presenters are responsible for securing and paying for their own travel, lodging, and meals.

Having been selected from over 1100 submissions, your presentation will make an important contribution to the quality of the convention and the information provided for the participants. We will request an electronic copy of your handouts for use with our online Live Learning Center. If you wish to display or sell materials, you may do so only by renting space in the Exhibit Hall. More information on this can be found in the Speaker Management Center.

If you have any questions about the information presented here, please contact Derrick Johnson (202) 621-5764 or the national office at 202-785-4268. You can also e-mail your questions to djohnson@nagc.org. We hope that you will be able to join us in Atlanta!